Improvements Certain for the City Water Works.

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

Board to Meet Friday-Charter Signs the Contract.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Manchester will have big improvements agreed to give the Water Board the additional $1,000 asked to complete the improvements, making $3,500 in all, and the work will go on in a short while There was considerable debate, but all the members agreed fluilly to the propo sition, and the members of the board were, accordingly, very happy.

Another thing the Council did was to refer the free bridge matter to the Fi nance Committee for a conference with action of the Council last night in reference to the Water Board appropriation. The Finance Committee will also nicet on Friday night to transact some business in reference to the appropriations provided for in the budge.

A meeting of the Street Committee was held last night and lots of routine work was done. The city engineer was directed to use the city roller whenever work on the streets necessitated such use, and it is quite evident that the improvements to streets is to be pushed to a finish. Shotwell—Lumpkin .

The marriage of Mr. A. D. Shotwell, a prominent citizen of Manchesier, to Miss Cora. Power Lumpkin will take place at the home of the bride, No. 19 East Ninth Street, this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Shotwell is a prominent citizen of Manchester; president of the Bank of Manchester; senior member of the firm of A. D. Shotwell and Company, and chairman of the City School Board.
Miss Lumpkin is the eldest daughter of the late Rev. W. G. Lumpkin, of the Virginia Conference.

The ceremony will be performed by the brother of the bride, Rev. R. P. Lumpkin, of Danville, assisted by her uncle, the Rev. J. G. Lumpkin, of Richmond.
The couple will leave on the morning train for an extended Southern tour.

Funeral of R. H. Harrison.

The Olympia Club will meet to-night to elect officers, and incidentally to celebrate the birthday of President Wells. The club is in a most fourishing condition, and it is expected that the affair to-night will prove one of the events of the sea-

Pitcher Charter signed a Manchesier contract last night, and will play this season with the Twin-City club from this city. Charter has received several offers this season to go away, but has turned them all down to play at home, and he promises to be the star pitcher in the local league. Charter has the record of striking out more men than any other pitcher in the league last year. He will be on the same club with Elliott, the only "spit" ball player in the league. The batteries will be Charter and Elmore and Elliott and Trexler.

RALDIGH, N. C., March 21.—Mr. J Bryan Grimes, secretary to the North sulng invitations to Confederate veterans in all parts of the State to attend the unvelling of the monpment at Appomatox on April 10th. The invitation states hat North Carolina proudly boasts of having been the "last at Appomattox," and that she can also boast of being the first to erect a permanent memorial to the unshaken fidelity with which her the unshaken fidelity with which her soldiers remained "faithful to the end." Announcement is made that addresses will be made by the Governors of North Carolina and Virginia, and by Generals Cox and Roberts, whose commands so greatly distinguished themselves on the occasion to be commemorated. A rate of one fare for the round trip has been granted by the railroads, but effort is being made to secure the still further reduction of one cent a mile. The invitations are signed by Major H. A. London, chairman of the commission.

ball league this season. A meeting is to be held in the next few days. Charlotte, Greensboro, Roanoke and Lynchburg are said to be aiready in such a league, and Danville will probably be added. The greatest difficulty here is claimed to be the matter of suitable grounds. The "oranks" say the State fair ground is out of the question for this purpose, although it has been used for these games for many years.

Raleigh Lodge of Elks, at an enthusiastic meeting last night, elected J. F., Forrill representative to the Grand Lodge at Buffalo next July, and announced that work will begin within the next few days on their aplendid new temple. The Elks purpose to celebrate their fourth anniversary in the new temple in November.

Mr. T. P. Eddridge, telegraph editor of the Post, left last evening for Richmond to attend the funeral of his mother, who died in Chase City yesterday morning.

Mr. C. A. Johnson received a telegram last night from Mrs. Johnson that her mother died in Morganion last afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson had been at her bedside for several days. Pneumonia was the cause of the death.

HENDERSON, N. C., March 21.—A small colored boy in the employ of Mr. Henry Thomaston, came near hanging himself accidentally this morning. While standing at the store door he placed the awning cord around his neck; it is said he had a spasm and the weight of his body resting upon the neck, came near stransling him. When found his eyes and tongue were protruding; he, however, was soon released and regained consciousness.

A site for a large carriage factory has been secured here, and stock to the amount of $35,000 has been subscribed.

The capacity of the Henderson and Harriet cotton mills will be increased in the near future. There will be 500 spindles added to each. This will give employment to about 2,000 operatives. Justice John Gives Persons Time Justice John's Court yesterday was punctuated with drunks, but that did not interfere with the general run of things, and the first name on the docket of any importance was that of William Johnson, who is charged with shooting Lewis Johnson. The case was sent on to the grand jury.

Robert Mitchell was aent down on twelve months' security on the suspicion that he was implicated in the theft of a watch from G. W. Blaylock.

GOES TO PORTSMOUTH.

Resignation of Durham Pastor Surprise to Congregation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. 'C., March 21,—Rev. C. J., D. Parker, for seven years pastor of the Second Baptist Church in this city, has resigned to take charge of the Fourth Street Baptist Church Portsmouth, Va.

'The resignation came as a surprise to the congregation Mr. Parker recently received a call from Baltimore, and went there to look over the field. After considering the matter for some time he announced that he would remain in Durham. The "Rider and Driver," of New York, printed on yesterday the story of the Haind Trial between Mr. Harry W. Smith's American Pack from Grafton Hunt and Mr. Higginson's English Pack from Middlesex Hunt.

The Times-Dispatch printed this story, together with telegrams from both Mr. Smith and Mr. Higginson, on March 9th, exactly ten days ago.

Smith and Mr. Higginson, on March star, exactly ten days ago.
The fact is, The Times-Dispatch was used by both Mr. Smith and Mr. Higginson as the means of anno meing that the trial would take place and that it would be held in Pledmont Valley, near Upperville, Va.
The Times-Dispatch was ahead of every other paper in printing this interesting announcement. announced that he would remain a ham. The Portsmouth Church thereupon sent a committee of two descons here for a conference with Mr. Parker. The descons assured the minister that if he could leave in six months, or even a year, the pastorate would-be kept open. Mr. Parker again took the matter under advisement, with the result that he has decided to accept the call.

HONOR DR. ALDERMAN.

Another large crowd gathered at the First Baptist Church last night to hear Dr. McDaniel preach in the evangelical service now going on. The interest in these meetings is growing each night, and at this service the congregation filled the room. Much interest was manifested and several professed falth in Christ. Dr. McDaniel is a most impressive and interesting speaker and his riscourses are greatly enjoyed. The meetings will continue each night this week at 8 o'clock. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the meetings are had for the benefit of those who cannot attend at night. Large Delegation From Greensboro to Attend Installation.

Grape-Nuts

"In cases of slow digestion, lack of stomach tone, and debility, this food is invaluable."

Now for the reason:

The great bulk of human food is starch in some form-bread, pastry, potatoes, rice, cereals such as oats, wheat, rye, barley, etc. This class of food supplies "energy" if it be properly digested, but there's the rub. Starch and sugar in food are digested by the liver and intestines. When these organs are overworked or become weak, then the food is not entirely digested and lies in the warm moisture of the body until it decays, producing gas, and therefore disturbance and incipient disease of the liver and intestines and frequently appendicitis. To meet this trouble Grape-Nuts food was invented. In it the starch part of wheat and barley is transformed by long soaking, warmth, and time into sugar-just the same method as the body employs in digestion. Hence when one eats Grape-Nuts he eats a pre-digested food, ready for immediate digestion and assimilation, supplying the body
